NRCC Launches TV Ad Against Zack Space

New Ad Reveals Zack Space's Real Record for Out-of-Control Spending Spree

Washington- The NRCC is announcing a new television ad to hold Rep. Zack Space (OH-18) accountable for authorizing to spend American taxpayers' money at the rate of a billion dollars an hour. The television ad launched today to confront Zack Space for endorsing a reckless spending spree in Washington and authorizing over $1.2 trillion in new spending so far this year.

“Zack Space has failed to be honest about his willingness to support a pork-filled stimulus package and a budget that taxes, spends and borrows in excess at the expense of his constituents in Ohio,” said NRCC Communications Director Ken Spain. “We will continue to hold Zack Space accountable for rubber-stamping Nancy Pelosi’s agenda that will burden middle-class families and inflict further damage on an already fragile economy for years to come.”

ANNCR:

*Just how fast is Congressman Zack Space spending your money?
Newspapers say Space and Nancy Pelosi authorized 1.2 trillion dollars in spending in less than two months.
24 billion per day. A billion dollars every hour.
Now they're spending even faster. Nancy Pelosi pushed a budget with a trillion dollar deficit.
And Space voted to let Nancy Pelosi get her way.
Tell Zack Space it's time to put the brakes on spending.
